

Marija Nikolovska is born in Skopje, Macedonia.

She shows her musical talent from very young age and at the age of 6 she starts music school in the class of prof Danica Stojanova in the State music and ballet center "Ilija Nikolovski – Luj " in Skopje, Macedonia. During her education there, she participates in the music projects and concerts organized by the school, but also attends competitions and plays recitals outside of the borders of the school, in the country and abroad.

Her education also includes the participation of masterclasses organized by excellent pianist and musicians: Danica Stojanova (Macedonia), Jenny Zaharieva (Bulgaria), Andrei Diev (Russia), Andrei Korobenikov (Russia), Pascal Nemirovski (France), Natalia Troull (Russia), Chantal Stigliani (France), Rafael Salinas (Spain), Marina Pliassova (Norway), Antonio di Cristofano (Italia ) Agathe Leimony (Greece), Domna Evnughidu (Greece).....

She also won prizes at competitions: Ars Kosova musical competition for youth, Pristina 2011, (Special prize- 100 points), Davorin Jenko International Piano Competition in Belgrade 2012, (III prize), International Festival "Lake Pearls", Struga, 2013 ( I-Laureat), Laureat on the 8th Kyusyuu International J.S.Bach Music Competition in Kurume, Japan, 2014, performed Mozart piano concertos in Poros Academy with Athens Symphonietta orchestra, and recitals in Greece, Bulgaria, Serbia, Kosovo.

She finishes Music Academy in Skopje, by mentor prof. doc. Kristina Svetieva, after which she continues her education in the National Music Academy "Prof. Pancho Vladigeroff " in Sofia , Bulgaria, where at the moment she is attending "specialization in performance" studies.

Marija's latest performances include recitals in Rome, Paris, Prague, Sofia, Skopje, and the performance of the Beethoven's third concert with the Academy's orchestra in Sofia.

Contact: maria.nikolovska@gmail.com

tel : +359896663172